Booster Clinic Nov. 7 For AHS Freshmen

The Health Department announced today that, in cooperation with the School Department, a Diphtheria and Tetanus Booster Clinic will be held in the Freshmen grade of the Senior High School on Thursday, Nov. 7. The increase of this disease nationally and close to home warrants such a clinic.

All parents are urged to check their family immunization records and check with their family doctor to receive the necessary booster doses.

This disease is not eradicated. Approximately 10-12 percent of the cases end in death. The state Health Department and the American Medical Association strongly recommends that all children and adults be protected against this disease.

YMCA Executive Accepts State Post At N.H.

Fred C. Emerson, president of the Agawam Community YMCA announced this morning that Zaven K. Vorperian, general secretary of the local YMCA has resigned in order to accept a new position with the State YMCA of New Hampshire. Emerson said the Board received the resignation with deep regret, but most pleased for Vorperian's advancement. Emerson said the resignation would be effective December 31, 1963.

ZAVEN K. VORPERIAN

Connelly Fits Agawam To A "T"

The basis for which the voters of Agawam will build their hopes for the future in the person of their new selectman are multiple. Four of the prime areas generally discussed are: education, recreation, taxes and business development.

In this article, the Connelly-for-Selectman Committee wishes to discuss the latter two phases because they are direct savings to you today and they are the promise for your future.

The "cream" of our tax revenue is involved in a history based on the acts of the real leaders of your community who have acted, spoken and performed to the benefit of all rather than a few. Many of our prospective politicians have used all or part of this history as a crutch in inducing voters to believe untruths. Some would continue to do so. To be more pertinent, we offer the history of the business institutions located in Agawam and contributing in high tax revenue.

Let us deal first with the "SHOPPING CENTER." This core area contributes approximately 5 percent of our tax revenue. If credit for its establishment should be directed to any one person, it should be given to the foresight of the late John Beltrandi. Joseph Ramah should receive a great deal of credit for its physical development, ably aided, zoning-wise by a Republican Planning Board. We would (Continued on Page 8)

At 8 o'clock there will be a business session conducted by Mrs. J. Clinton Wright, Jr., guild president. Rev. John P. Shannon, spiritual adviser, will open the meeting with prayer.

Following the meeting, a social hour will be held with games in play and prizes awarded.

"Y" Broom Sale To Start Saturday

Fred C. Emerson, president of the Agawam Community YMCA announced this morning that the Community "Y" will conduct a Broom Sale the first three Saturdays in November. Emerson announced the general committee heading up the YMCA project with Mr. Santo A. Cannarella as general chairman, assisted by Ernest Swanson, Nick Zucco, Paul Adams, Jr., Arthur Diagneau, James O'Keefe, Sam Provo and Zaven Vorperian. Chairman Cannarella indicated that the proceeds from the Broom Sale will be used to supplement the YMCA Youth Program Fund.

Industrial brooms, as well as the house brooms will be sold by the YMCA group and persons or firms interested in the Industrial type broom may contact Nick Zucco or the YMCA office to place their orders.

The residential areas of the community will be canvassed by groups of YMCA youngsters, chaperoned by adult volunteers of the YMCA. Prizes for top youth salesman will be announced as soon as the committee has reviewed a number of possibilities.

The residential canvass will begin this Saturday, Nov. 2, and will continue for the next two Saturdays, Nov. 9th, 16th. Canvassers will make their rounds in the mornings between the hours of 9 a.m. and 12 Noon. Committee members indicated their hopes of "sweeping the town clean" with the project.

Mrs. Fred Emerson and Mrs. Nell Toczko, Agawam co-chairmen today thanked the children's organizations of all the churches in Agawam who have pledged their co-operation to the UNICEF appeal. Agawam High's Dance Band is one of the most entertaining groups in Agawam. Led by Mr. Darcy Davis, band director, and his assistant Mr. Raymond Suzor, AHS Chemistry teacher, the small band supplies all the music for the operetta and several assemblies. As stated by Tommy O'Rourke, a member of the dance band, "The dance band is working hard to achieve last year's success."

Silence, concentration, and skill, the main essentials of chess, are displayed in the Guidance Conference Room once a week when the chess team meets. ## SOCIAL SECURITY

Questions and Answers

Q. I've just hired a woman to do housework for me one day a week, at $5 a day. I realize that this is enough to bring her work under social security. How do I get the forms I'll need to send in the tax?

A. Our office will send you a copy of our booklet No. 21, "Social Security and Your Household Employee." Notice that the last page is a tear-out post card form. Fill it out, and mail it. Every three months the Internal Revenue Service will send you the special report forms you need.

Q. I've just started in business and have two employees. How often do I send in a social security report on them?

A. Every quarter (three months). You have one month after each quarter ends before your report must be in. For example: the report for the July-August-September quarter is due by October 31, the January-February-March report is due by April 30, etc.

Q. Does a businessman report his own social security every quarter along with the report he makes on his employees?

A. No. His own social security report is a part of his annual Federal income tax return. He sends it in only once a year.

Q. I worked for a lady last year who didn't know my pay was covered by social security. I didn't know it either. Now that she has found out, she has offered to send in late reports and pay up the tax that's due. Can't I just send it in myself?

A. No. She must make the reports and send in the tax. You should give her your share (1/2) of the tax, however.

Q. I send in social security reports on the employees in my store. My wife always sends in a separate report on our maid. Somebody told me I can include our maid on my store's social security report. Is this true?

A. Yes. You may report your maid on your business report.

Q. I am a farm worker and work for several different farmers. How can I make certain I get credit on my social security account for all my employment?

A. Show your social security card to each of your employers, and keep a record of the cash pay and time worked for each one. Each farm employer is required to report your earnings every year for social security purposes if you work for him for 20 or more days in the year for cash pay figured on a time basis, or if he pays you $150 or more in cash wages.

Nine months after the end of the year, you can check your social security account by asking your local social security office for Form 7004. When you receive your statement, compare it with your own record. If there is a mistake, get in touch with your social security office promptly.

SPORTSMEN'S CORNER

By Bill Chiba

The West Springfield Fish and Game Club of Feeding Hills raises pheasants for stocking in local covers every year. This year the feed bill is mounting, for the birds are still in the pen, waiting for mother nature to drop a substantial amount of rain before being released. The club began with 150 birds and have lost about 20 up to date from various factors.

The local club is very active under the leadership of Albert Christopher, president. Other officers that are keeping the organization on an even keel are Edward Spanek, secretary, Clayton Brown, treasurer, and Bill Higgins, recording secretary. This year the membership totals 278.

Last Sunday, while we were over to the club, we observed Norman Blair setting up the area for the weekly turkey shoot. The club holds this event every Sunday and the proceeds are being put aside for the annual Christmas party for the children of the members of the club. Norm told us that a 22 rifle event will be run off with the turkey shoot next week, starting at one p.m.

Every Friday and Saturday night a band is beating out music for dancing in the club's hall. Steve and Helen Sliech operate the kitchen and the food they put

Prolonged Living

Shown above is George Alajanian, manager of the West Springfield Fish and Game Club shooting a group of cock pheasants that the club has raised this year for stocking in local covers for the gunners. out is superb. Clams, both steamed and fried, are available along with scallops and shrimp. Their pizza is out of this world. So if you are looking for a good place to spend a few enjoyable hours Friday or Saturday night drop over to the West Springfield Fish and Game Club. George Alajanian, the manager, will certainly make your stay a pleasant one.

At a recent meeting of the Massachusetts Field Archery Board of Directors the following persons were nominated for office for 1964. For President: Robert Osier, Fred Bean, George Anufrom, and Francis Gibree; 1st vice—Bea Chamberlain; 2nd vice—Lee Bates; Sect'y-Treas.—Fred Daniels; and for Fin.-Sec.—Jan Daniels.

It was voted to hold the pre-annual and the annual meetings at the Auburn Sportsman's Club, Auburn, Mass. The pre-annual meeting will be held January 5th, and the annual meeting Sunday, March 1st, '64. Notices will be sent out well in advance of the meetings to the clubs in the Association.

The Chester Rod and Gun Club was host to the Hampden County Council of Sportsmen Clubs Thursday. The club put on a Coon and Spaghetti dinner for the County delegates. The meal was very tasty and Dick Schuhlen did it justice.

The high light of the meeting was the presentation of a check for $577.95 by the Holyoke Fish and Game Club to Bill Chiba, chairman of the Land Acquisition Fund, for the purpose of buying land to hold open for hunting, fishing and camping for the people of the Commonwealth. The host club also donated $20.00 to the fund.

The next meeting of the Council will be held at the West Springfield Fish and Game Club with the Hampden Women's Rod and Gun Club as hosts. Members of the Five Man Board have been invited to attend the meeting. The meeting will be held the third Thursday of the month instead of the fourth... the fourth being Thanksgiving Day.

Fired Up Brownies Run Over Westfield 38-8

A revengeful Agawam squad shook off the effects of their loss to Tech with a sound pasting of Westfield, last Saturday at Westfield High before 3000 fans. The Bombers didn't know what hit them! Agawam, although not predicted to win, scored five touchdowns, four extra point attempts and gained 326 yards rushing. The scoring heroes were Bill Turgeon and Ed Harashuk both tallying two apiece, while Bob Morin scored on an eighty yarder. The win leaves Agawam 2-2 and the Bombers 3-2 for the season.

Agawam drew first blood when quarterback Bill Turgeon swept left from the Bombers 17 for the TD set up by an Ed Harashuk run of seven yards. The rush failed and the Brownies led 6-0 at the end of the quarter. Westfield scored after a 45-yard run-back of the Agawam kickoff. Set up on their own 49, a 17-yard pass from Ed Ligenza to Don Bullard carried them to the 34. The score came after Ligenza and Tom Polaski combined for yardage with Ligenza going in from the five. The rush with Ligenza was good, and Westfield was ahead, 8-6.

Late in the second quarter, Harashuk capped a 76-yard drive with a 19-yard TD run. A pass from Turgeon was good for the extra points and it was 12-8 Agawam.

The Bombers, trying to score quickly, passed but were intercepted by Jack Michalek who returned it to the 21 of Westfield. Harashuk scored from 17 yards out for another Agawam TD, with Bob Polopek getting the extra points.

In the third period, Rick Morin recovered a punt by Bullard on Westfield's 36. Turgeon went up the middle for the score seven plays later, again the pass from Turgeon was good and Agawam led 30-8.

The tremendous defense of the Brownies held the Bombers after they gained to the 23 with lineman Dick Chandler and Ron Young throwing Bullard for a seven yard loss to stop the march.

A fumble recovery by Bill Polopek, set up the 80 yard run by Bob Morin in the last quarter and the point after attempt was good.

The line, both offense and defense, can not be praised enough for their effort in the victory Saturday.

Next Saturday Agawam is host to the unbeaten Pacers of Chicopee. Lineups are:

TURKEY SHOOT

A large number of sportsmen turned out to enjoy the first of a series of Turkey Shoots, sponsored by the Veterans of World War One, at the Agawam Sportsman Club on Corey St., Agawam. These shoots will be held every Sunday afternoon starting at two o'clock.

The lucky ones to take home a Turkey for their Thanksgiving Dinner were lead by Archie Moe who took home three nice birds. Other winners were George Blood; Carl Schebel; Earl Scott; Jennie Miller; Frank Marjacy and Jocko.

Why not come over next Sunday and try your skill and maybe take home a Turkey. Ammunition is furnished at the club and if you do not have a gun you will be able to borrow one. So don't let the lack of a gun or ammunition keep you home. Bring the wife along with you and let her enjoy the picnic area and the Club Rooms.

SQUARE DANCE

By Norm and Dot Jenks

We were attacked by Indians last Friday night. Eight of them plus a papoose or two came whooping in and set their teepee up right in the middle of the hall. What did we do? . . . we danced around it . . . what did they do? . . . they danced around it too. Those fierce Indians were in reality the Bitgoods, Davillis, Donovans and the Clorans. You don't have to guess that this was our Halloween Party. Strange and wonderful things went on all evening including a visit by eerie ghosts when the lights went out.

Door prizes galore were given away as well as prizes for costumes to Joe Trucolo and Hazel Howland, the scarecrows; Doug and Adele Cochrane and Red and Dolly Fessler, toreadors and bulls; Rupert and Ethel Kane, Marsians; Fran and Annette Martin, organ grinder and gypsy; Charles and Rosemarie Nathan, senior and seniorita and naturally that tribe of Indians. There also was a wise old owl floating around who finally was identified as the caller's wife, Carol Steele.

Hail to the committee for such a marvelous party. Ed and Ruth Johnson were chairmen with Eddie and Teddy Moriarty, Ken and Edith Clouse giving of their talents.

Weekend in N. H.

Lou and Chic Draghetti spent a square dance weekend in Troy, New Hampshire with Dick Steele as the featured caller. They had a wonderful time. Their only complaint is that it was too short.

Next Dance!

Nov. 8th will be the next regularly scheduled dance for the

Chalkliners "See How They Run" To Benefit Women's Club Fund

There is a youngster in the senior class at Agawam High School who, if anyone knew who he was, would be extremely interested in the Chalkliners' production of "See How They Run", which will be opening on December 6 at the Phelps School Auditorium. Of course, no one knows who that youngster is, not even the members of the Agawam Agawam Promenaders. Dick Steel will be calling and the place is the Robinson Park School at 8 p.m. See you there!

New Class Take Note

The new class will have their lesson this Tuesday, Nov. 5th at the Baptist Church Hall on the corner of Main and Elm Sts.

Women's Club, who haven't decided yet who the lucky student will be, but if anyone DID know, and the student found out, he or she would be suddenly fascinated by the glamorous world of the theater, by the actors, the make-up, the lights, the publicity. Most naturally, this particular student would be the first to adopt the age-old theatrical habit of "counting the house", for he or she is going to be the recipient of the scholarship grant of the Agawam Women's Club who this year are counting on the Chalkliner's production of the fabulous British comedy, "See How They Run" to put their scholarship fund drive over the top.

What hopeful scholar wouldn't

Ice Capades Lists Seven Acts; To Open Nov. 25

When the first frost fills the air and hockey starts at the Coliseum, peoples thoughts turn to turkey, Thanksgiving and another event almost as traditional as Thanksgiving itself here in the Pioneer Valley, The Ice Capades. That great ice spectacle makes its annual visit to the Eastern States Coliseum, West Springfield, each year at that holiday time.

This year the all new 1964 edition of Ice Capades will be at the Coliseum starting Nov. 25, for a limited engagement. There will be only six nightly performances, Monday thru Friday at 8 p.m. and Saturday at 9 p.m., also five matinees, Thursday, Thanksgiving, at 3 p.m., Saturday and Sunday at 1:30 and 5:30 p.m.

Each year patrons are heard to remark that Producer John H. Harris has done the best job yet and that he will never be able to top that edition and the following year you hear them say that he has done it again. Judging by the response shown Ice Capades when it appeared at Madison Square Garden in New York for its world premiere performance this fall the unbelievable Mr. Harris must have done it again.

With no less than seven great production numbers including Masquerade, Viva Italia, Hallelujah, Kiddies Circus, A Salute to Cole Porter, Up in Central Park and the Annapolettes, Ice Capades may well be described as one of the most versatile entertainment features of the year.

Mail orders are now being accepted for the Springfield engagement prior to the box office opening Oct. 29, and patrons are urged to send for their tickets as early as possible to insure the location and performance they desire.

"count the house" with an opportunity like this?

The Chalkliners have accepted the challenge to raise money for the scholarship fund because the Women's Club endeavor is one that goes to the heart of everyone in Agawam . . . helping one more ambitious young person on the road to a higher education. The Chalkliners, who have made many an Agawam audience laugh or cry by their antics on local stage put all acting aside when they stress that they are reaching out across the footlights for the hand of all Agawam to help them and the Women's Club give that unknown deserving youngster a good solid step upward.

A new date has been set for the production . . . December 6 and 7, to make it possible for more folks to see the show. When we "count the house" we hope you'll be in it!

AMERICAN ART WEEK NOV. 1-7

The Art Committee of the Agawam Women's Club announces plans to observe National Art Week, November 1st to 7th, by displaying the work of local artists and craftsmen in the windows of some of our banks, stores, etc.

This is a fine opportunity to acquaint the community with the talents of club members and others in this town.

The Committee under the chairmanship of Mrs. Charles Kistner will display some excellent Velvet paintings, an 18th century art, so popular now, Tinsel painting and also a classical exhibit of hand painted trays and other pieces of early American and antique design. Oil paintings will also be on view as in the past.

It is hoped that the community will derive much pleasure from the fine work of townspeople.

Connelly . . .

question the right of any other group to take any credit unless they be that part of a Republican administration who curbed the threats of businesses located there to "close shop" unless the drainage system was repaired and/or corrected. Since that accomplishment all has gone well.

The history of the arrival of Buxton's, Stacy's, Hoods, Crompton & Knowles, Pioneer Plastics and others on the Agawam scene is respectively similar. Our leaders, working in conjunction with a dedicated minority member, personally contacted the above managements, introduced them to various Agawam officials, conducted tours and finally convinced them that Agawam was the place for their new home. Would the voters be made to believe that our "prospective leaders" would not be interested enough to accept the same involvements to establish in Agawam, any business institution with which they may be associated? Does the interest of a candidate change from year to year?

There is another side to this "business development" history that is not so bright. It is the story of the "gas station era." For this the credit belongs to another group of Agawam leaders who saw fit to allow too many of our valuable "business zoned" corners to become advertising depots for major oil companies. Once a gas station, always a gas station—then a decrepit used car lot and finally, a permanent eye sore. This was their political and business acumen.

Voters of Agawam, consider this history . . . Ask questions about it. When this has been done you will know that Ed Connelly has your direct interest at heart. He doesn't want you to get hurt tax-wise and he does want you to be proud of Agawam's future business development. You will sense that Connelly fits your thinking to a "T" and on his experienced shoulders you can place your "T's"—Taxes, Troubles, Trust.
